VIETNAM UNVEILED!

Although many westerners still imagine Vietnam through the lens of war, it is in reality a country filled with captivating natural beauty and tranquil village life. Its highlands and rainforest regions, far from being devastated, continue to yield new species and team with exotic wildlife. Its islands and beaches are among the finest in all of Southeast Asia, and its cuisine is very possibly the most delicious you will ever find. Over two decades have passed since Vietnam was officially united, and in that time it has done a remarkable job of healing its wounds. Today, this gracious and graceful country is an outstanding travel destination.

CHARMING CAMBODIA!

A pearl in an unopened oyster - Cambodia is one of Southeast Asia's jewels. A country of incredible beauty, there's a magic about Cambodia that casts a spell on all who visit this charming yet confounding kingdom. With a history that is both inspiring and depressing, Cambodia is an intoxicating place where the future is waiting to be shaped. Breathtaking temples, beautiful and abundant scenery, landscapes of lush green forests and jungles, banana plantations, fertile plains dotted with rice fields, mighty rivers, undeveloped golden beaches, a balmy climate, and a relaxed atmosphere make this destination a travel junkie's dream!

DID YOU KNOW?

- Most common family name in Vietnam is NGUYEN (about 60% of population).
- Vietnamese eat rice more than any country in the world.
- Vietnamese people often say 'Where are you going?' instead of 'Hello' when they see each other.
- Vietnam has one of the lowest unemployment rates in the Third World.
- Cambodia is home to the single largest religious structure in the world, the Angkor Wat.
- The Tonle Sap, the only river in the world that reverses its flow annually, is in Cambodia.
- Cambodians greet each other by pressing their palms together in front of their bodies and bowing. This is called a Sompeah, with the younger or lower ranked person normally initiating the gesture.

DETAILED ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrival in Hanoi

Welcome to Hanoi! Upon arrival at the Noi Bai International airport you will be transferred to your hotel where you will be assisted with check-in and enjoy a special “Welcome Drink” with light refreshments.

Day 2: Hanoi City Tour & Culture Talk (B, D)

After breakfast, we start the tour at the historic Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum; an imposing monument lavishly built using marble and granite, and where the preserved body of “Uncle Ho” resides. A short walk from the mausoleum is the One Pillar Pagoda – resting on a single stone pillar emerging from the water, it is shaped like a lotus flower on its stalk. Inside is a statue of the Goddess of Mercy with its legendary “thousand arms and thousand eyes”.

Afterward, wind your way to the Temple of Literature, the first University for the sons of mandarins, for an overview about Hanoi culture and ancient Vietnamese architecture. Here you have the unique opportunity to learn about the history and culture of the Vietnamese with a culture talk given by the well-known historian and writer, Dr. Huu Ngoc. Having lived through French colonial rule and American war times, the 90-year-old

Japanese Covered Bridge, Vietnam

Dr. Huu Ngoc has a wealth of knowledge about Vietnam’s history and the Temple of Literature. Participate in a one hour lively presentation of Vietnamese history from a thousand years ago and the varied aspects of Vietnamese culture. Take this opportunity to interact with Dr. Ngoc as we learn more about the Vietnamese culture and hear about his life experiences. At the end of the cultural interaction, Dr. Ngoc offers you a gift – a signed copy of one of his writings, “Wandering Through Vietnamese Culture.” Bring the book with you on your trip to know more in-depth the country of 3,000 years of history.

This afternoon, the serene Museum of Ethnology is a 30-minute drive out of town and offers a chance to get to know Vietnam’s 54 ethnic groups. From simple daily objects such as fishing instruments to pricier items such as jewelry, as well as an outdoor area with ethnic houses, the Museum’s rich displays showcase the cultural heritages of diverse Vietnamese communities. Take a walking tour through the old quarter to enjoy the bustling local life, then cap off this fun day with a show at the Water Puppet Theatre - a uniquely northern Vietnamese art form depicting scenes of rural life and episodes of national history. Return to your hotel for period of relaxation.

Day 3: Halong Bay Cruise (B, L, D)

After breakfast, enjoy a relaxing and scenic 3.5 hour drive from Hanoi as we head towards the beautiful seaside resort town of Halong Bay. Along the way we will briefly stop at a local handicraft center where you will have the opportunity to purchase souvenirs. Upon arrival into Halong Bay, you will board your private deluxe junk where a welcome drink and fun filled adventure awaits you. After a relaxing break, enjoy a delicious seafood lunch while cruising through the magical bay, where thousands of sculpted limestone islands rise from the waters like dragons’ teeth. After lunch, take a short trek to a nearby summit for a panoramic view of the bay, swim on a quiet beach or sunbathe on the deck. Later in the afternoon, visit a fishing village living in the bay for generations. At sunset, join a bamboo boat to discover a water tunnel with coral reefs in a scenic lagoon. Back on board for the most beautiful sunset dinner.

Day 4: Halong Bay - Hanoi - Hue (BR)

Wake up early to catch the dramatic sunrise on the bay and enjoy a Tai Chi demonstration on the sun deck. Relax with a cup of hot coffee or tea before departing to the splendid Sung Sot grotto where stalactites hanging from the high ceiling take on numerous shapes and forms. Enjoy a late buffet brunch on board while cruising back to the boat docking station. We then bid farewell to Halong Bay and begin our return trip to Hanoi with a stop at Phu Lang village, one of the last survivors of an old pottery village amidst the modern pressure to industrialize. The pottery here is defined by the brown color and unique patterns. Wander around the village and chat with the artisans at Gom Nhung workshop or try sitting behind a potter’s wheel. Continue transfer back to Hanoi Airport for the evening flight to Hue. Upon arrival, you will be transferred to your hotel and enjoy an evening of relaxation.

Day 5: Hue City Tour & Royal Martial Arts Performance (B, L)

Following breakfast, start the cultural integration with a 10-min “cyclo” tour from your hotel to the Imperial Citadel. Take a stroll to explore the history and architecture around the Capital Citadel (the bastion), Royal Citadel (the sanctum), and the Forbidden Citadel (the royal family's residence). From there, drive to the boat docking station where you will embark on a half-hour boat trip along the picturesque Perfume River to visit the Thien Mu Pagoda, Hue's best-preserved religious monument. Standing on the riverbank with its seven-story tower, the pagoda is a sight to behold. Enjoy a lunch with royal Hue cuisine at the Ancient Hue Restaurant.

After lunch we take a short drive to the serene Tu Duc Royal Tomb, designed to blend in with the natural surroundings. An incense stick-making house makes for an interesting stop before heading to the elaborate Khai Dinh Royal Tomb, where architecture and atmosphere showcase elements of eastern art and western designs.

We then enjoy a Royal Martial Arts performance - a great cultural feature inherited from the Nguyen Dynasty. A 25-minute long performance of different martial art techniques is reminiscent of the past heroic plots of Vietnamese patriots against colonialists' suppression. Held at the Temple of the Commanding General Le Van Duyet who served under Gia Long King of 1800s, the 10th generation of family members still resides here.

Day 6: Hue to Hoi An (B)

Say farewell to the majestic city of Hue and embark on an early morning drive to beautiful Hoi An. Along the way we will make a stop at the Lang Co Fishing Village located on a sand dune line for a photo opportunity. Continue the drive over the Hai Van Cloudy Pass where a spectacular panorama of the coastline can be viewed from the summit. We arrive in Hoi An where you will check in to your hotel. In the afternoon, the narrow lanes are ideal for a walking tour to visit the old merchant's house with influences from Chinese, Japanese and Vietnamese architecture; the 400-year-old Japanese Covered Bridge; the Assembly Hall of the Chaozhou Chinese Congregation with outstanding wood carvings; and the colorful market with stalls brimming with tropical specialties including silk, which can be turned into fashionable garments within a day. An optional stop is the private home of Diep Dong Nguyen with a stunning collection of artifacts ranging from pottery and seals to paintings, money and old Hoi An's photos.

Hue Hai Van Pass

Day 7: Hoi An: Day At Leisure (B)

Optional Tour 1: Kim Bong Village

Embark on a boat trip on Thu Bon River to Kim Bong carpentry village. The craftsmen here have made a vital contribution to the recent restoration of Hoi An and Hue's historic architecture. Meander through the village with the possibility of seeing wooden fishing vessels being built using traditional techniques. Visit a carpentry workshop and witness how the specialists' tools and techniques are passed on from one generation to another. Explore the village where you may see local people weaving fishing baskets, or, possibly visit children at a local primary school. If you wish to donate something practical, you can purchase books, notebooks, pens, school bags and clothes locally. End the trip at an ancient house which dates back 200 years. Take this chance, with a little help from your guide, to chat with the host to learn more about their daily life and how they have preserved the ancestral house for generations. Cruise back to the old town.

Optional Tour 2: My Son Temples

My Son is one of the foremost Hindu temple sites in South East Asia. For the Cham civilization that ruled Central Vietnam from the 2nd to the 13th century, My Son was an important religious site and place of worship. A 1.5-hour drive from Hoi An will bring you to My Son where there are 20 monuments still standing today. The temples are set in a verdant valley surrounded by hills and overlooked by the impressive Cat Tooth Mountain. Stroll around this UNESCO listed temple complex to learn about the Cham culture, architecture and civilization before returning to Hoi An.

Optional Tour 3: Cham Island

Special Note: The Central coastal lowlands are affected by monsoon from October to January; the itinerary with beach activities is subject to weather condition.

Cham Island, 45km off the coast from Hoi An, consists of seven small islands. Famous for their marine life and beautiful beaches, take a 30 minute private speed boat ride for an insight into what makes Cham Island popular. Visit a traditional fishing village, a shelter for boats in bad weather and Ong temple, dedicated to a whale buried here. For the adventurous, try snorkelling at Xep beach before ending the trip at Chong beach - a true oasis with white sands, swaying palm trees and a simple local restaurant where you will enjoy a seafood lunch. Cruise back to Hoi An.

Optional Tour 4: Farming & Fishing Life Tour

Special Note: The Central coastal lowlands are affected by monsoon from October to January; the itinerary is subject to weather condition.

Depart from the hotel by bicycle and peddle several kilometers to the Hoi An countryside (option to go by bus instead of bicycle). Passing by rice paddies and vegetable farms, your guide will make many stops along the way to explain the methods of farming in the area and the produce grown. There are so many photo opportunities here – lush green rice paddies, water buffalos, Vietnamese farmers working the fields, ducks swimming along the canals, etc. After cycling to the river, board a local river boat and start cruising down the Cua Dai River. When you reach a good spot, hop off the boat along the shore and try your hand at casting the Vietnamese fishing nets. Casting the nets takes practice, but the fisherman will offer their years of experience and advice. Then step into the unique round basket boats and learn how to paddle them. Travel by basket boat through the tranquil coconut-palm flanked waterways here and learn how the area was a hot bed of activity during the American-Vietnamese war. Later, re-board the larger boat and enjoy a refreshing cool drink as you head back up river.

Day 8: Hoi An – Saigon (B)

Following breakfast, enjoy some morning leisure time until your transfer to the airport for your flight to Saigon. Upon arrival, transfer to hotel to check in and unwind. The remainder of the day you are free to explore the city at your own leisurely pace.

Day 9: Saigon City Tour & Dinner at Ambassador's Former Residence (B, D)

After breakfast, embark on a walking tour to admire Saigon's historic landmarks including a stroll down Rue Catinat of Graham

Greené's. 'The Quiet American' will reveal more colonial classics; the Opera House, a three-story classical theatre built to entertain the French colonists; the former Hotel de Ville constructed for the French bureaucrats of Indochina in 1901, now The People's Committee building with no public access; the Notre Dame Cathedral, a stunningly massive red-brick edifice with twin spires, a clear reminder that French once ruled this city; the Central Post Office influenced by Renaissance architecture; and the former Presidential Palace, headquarters of the Saigon Government during the American war.

This afternoon, we visit Thien Hau temple built by the Cantonese congregation in the early 19th century. It is to honor the goddess of the sea and protector of fishermen. The temple's interior courtyard is worth seeing with beautiful ceramic figurines and antiques shrouded in incense-smoke. It is always bustling here with worshippers from the local Chinese community. Have a chance to write out your wishes on a small red note, stick it on an incense coil and pray for your wishes to come true. Return to your hotel to freshen up.

This evening, enjoy a cocktail reception and dinner at the former residence of Mr. Henry C. Lodge – the former US Ambassador to Vietnam in the 1960's who carried the mission of overthrowing the Southern Government. He lived here from 1960-1965, and the architecture is a mixture of Vietnamese, French and American. Today it is the private residence of a local family. Enjoy a short walk through an alley dotted with colonial mansions (some converted into charming open-air cafes) until you reach the home marked "6C". Behind the gate is a beautiful home where the welcome reception commences with dances performed by local children prior to a short film about the history of Saigon and this house. Then it's time to enjoy a meal hosted in the elegant dining room, accompanied by piano, violin and the life experiences of the home owner.

Day 10: Mekong Delta Bike & Boat Tour (B, L)

Special Note: Road surface: mix of asphalt and broken village roads.

A great way to glimpse the Delta scenery and life in style and comfort today is by bike and boat. After breakfast board the shuttle for a 2-hour scenic journey to the region of My Tho through urbanized areas. Arrive at the Xoai Mut war memorial which is the starting point of our biking trip. Jump on your bike and pedal on paved road toward Cai Lay, a fertile land famous for its various tropical fruits and lush rice paddies. This exciting 25km bike ride takes you through the tiny villages and orchards on quiet back roads and clay tracks as you pedal your way along the riverside towards the boat docking station where we will board the Mekong Queen boat for a visit to the charming town of Cai Be. A floating market, Cai Be is filled with a number of boats bursting with fruits, vegetables, and other products along the river banks. Traders have lived on the river in their boats for generations. Following this short cruise, enjoy a 10-min walk along the narrow lane as you observe daily life in this region. We will stop by a family-run longan (a local fruit drying processing factory) and enjoy a traditional Vietnamese lunch at an ancient Mandarin house where four generations of family members are living together. After a delicious lunch filled with Mekong Delta specialties, you can also take a stroll around the orchard to learn how it contributes to the family's livelihood. Either walk or take a rowing sampan back to the Mekong Queen for your return to Saigon.

Day 11: Saigon – Siem Reap (B)

Breakfast is at your hotel then we transfer to the airport for the flight to Siem Reap. Arrive in Siem Reap, a pleasant sleepy backwater serving as a gateway to the ancient capital of Angkor. Upon arrival we transfer to the hotel for check in. Afternoon, we start exploring the stunning temples by a fun tuk-tuk ride to the royal city of Angkor Thom. At first glance, it seems a shapeless mass of stone, but further scrutiny reveals enigmatic faces looking in every direction, with half-closed eyes, all looking content and serene. Continue your exploration by visiting Elephant Terrace. Built by Jayavarman VII with additions by later kings, the Elephant Terrace served as the base of the king's audience pavilions and a platform from which to view his victorious returning army. Here we also explore the Leper King Terrace. Built by Jayavarman VII in the late 12th century, the terrace was named for the statue of the 'Leper King' that sits on top. The outer terrace has five tiers of statues, but the real surprise is the inner terrace that was buried for hundreds of years. Winding along a narrow passage way, the inner terrace is covered with perfect carvings that positively leap out at passersby.

Late afternoon we take an Elephant Ride to enjoy the sunset at Phnom Bakheng, the first major temple to be constructed in the Angkor area. The Bakheng's hilltop location makes it the most popular sunset-watching spot, offering a panoramic view of Angkor Wat and West Baray. Afterwards return to your hotel for a leisure evening and relaxation.

Day 12: Angkor Temple & Culture Tour w/ Chea Bunat (B)

After breakfast, get an overview of Khmer history, culture, archeology and civilization from the beginning of the tour by a stroll through the elaborate carved halls of Angkor Wat. The tour is specially led by the Khmer scholar – Chea Bunat. A former professor of Cambodian history and archeology, he now works part time with Apsara Authority and Angkor Temple Conservations Institution in association with local and foreign research. Then continue your culture tour with a visit to the picturesque Ta Prohm, a jungle-clad temple with overgrown trees, giving a haunting and exotic atmosphere. The magnificent roots of a tree push itself between the temple's huge stone blocks in an embrace, emphasizing the 'lost city' feel.

Afternoon, enjoy a drive to the rural outskirts 35km from the town and visit Banteay Srei, the birthplace of Khmer classical style architecture. On our way, we pass a few small Cambodia villages that have likely remained essentially the same for centuries. Banteay Srey loosely translates to 'citadel of the women,' but this is a modern appellation that probably refers to the delicate beauty of the carvings. Banteay Srey displays some of the finest examples of classical Khmer art. The walls are densely covered with some of the most beautiful, deep and intricate carvings of any Angkorian temple. The temple's relatively small size, pink sandstone construction and ornate design give it a fairyland ambiance. On the way back stop at Les Artisans D'angkor, the school and workshop promote Khmer art and craft that lost from the Pol Pot regime. Transfer back to your hotel for the night.

Day 13: Siem Reap: Day At Leisure (B, D)

Optional Tour 1: Boat Trip On Tonle Sap Lake

Drive about 45-minutes to the countryside, stopping en route to visit a local village. Arrive at the quay and board a local boat for a 1.5-hour ride on the Tonle Sap Lake (the best times are from July to February), also known as the Great Lake of Cambodia. Find out how communities live and work on the lake; see the floating schools, markets, and police stations, among others; observe their daily lives. Drive back to Siem Reap.

Optional Tour 2: Koh Ker And Beng Melea

Special Note: Road conditions to Koh Ker may vary according to the season and can be bumpy in the wet season.

Depart for a full day trip to Koh Ker and Beng Melea both located in the beautiful rural hinterlands of Siem Reap. Travel off-the-beaten track for 2.5 hours before arriving at Koh Ker, the former capital of the Khmer Empire between 928 and 944 A.D. The style of the Koh Ker temple is different from any other temple in Cambodia and has more of a resemblance to the ancient pyramids of Egypt. Partially overgrown by the forest and inhabited only by birds, this temple and its surroundings are an exceptional experience.

Enjoy a simple picnic lunch near the temple and continue to visit other ancient structures in the peaceful area. As you head back to Siem Reap, visit the spectacular ruins of Beng Melea, which was constructed by King Suryavarman II (1113-1150). It preceded and may have served as a prototype of sorts for Angkor Wat. Contrary to Angkor, few carvings or bas-reliefs are evident. Today the temple is largely overrun by vegetation and the stone walls are crumbling which adds to its charm in a unique way. After your visit, drive 1.5 hours back to your hotel.

Optional Tour 3: Wat Bo Krum Village And Angkor Silk Farm

In the morning, drive about 45 minutes out of Siem Reap and stop en route to visit Wat Bo Krum village on the banks of the Siem Reap River. Wander around this typical Khmer village and enjoy the peaceful scenery. Visit the local children at the village school. (No visits possible between July and August due to local holidays). Donations are always welcome and you may want to bring some notebooks, pens, clothes, or rice to hand over to the school or village pagoda. Continue to the lake where you will board a rustic boat for a one hour boat trip over the Tonle Sap Lake. Observe a different way of life on the lake while passing by floating schools, markets, and gas stations. Visit a typical floating house to learn more about life on the water. Head back to Siem Reap for lunch on your own. Later in the afternoon visit the Angkor Silk Farm. This extensive and well documented foundation gives an excellent insight into how silk is traditionally processed in Cambodia. The farm supports vulnerable women to make a living for their families. Return to Siem Reap

This evening, enjoy a farewell dinner at FCC Restaurant

Day 14: Departure (B)

Enjoy your final day in this magical region. Take a last opportunity to see some sights, do some shopping, and explore the city until it is time to check out of the hotel and transfer to Siem Reap International Airport for your homebound flight! Tam biệt! (Farewell!)
